Zoom Along at the Construction Site - 2018-09-04

Kids take the driver's seat in their favorite construction vehicles! It's a new day at the construction site, and little ones can pretend to drive the vehicles that will get the job done! Large die-cut holes in place of each driver's face are perfect for a small child's own face to peek through. And mirrors, which can be seen through the holes, allow children to delight in seeing themselves in the driver's seat of all those powerful vehicles. From a bulldozer to an excavator to a dump truck, there are ten construction vehicles in all. Each vehicle's purpose is explained ("I move bricks with a forklift"), while rhyming sound effects on every spread add to the fun (Zoom! Ka-Boom!). But what have the vehicles been building all along?

Beep! Beep! Imaginations at play! Driving construction vehicles is loads of fun!

Step-by-step solutions in the answer key are included. These comprehensive workbooks are an excellent resource for developing skills for assessment success. Spectrum, the best-selling workbook series, is proud to provide quality educational materials that support your students' learning achievement and success.

Maddy's Very Bad Day - Timothy Wright

2021-10-12

Back Page Once again with this story I want the reader to be able to relate to what kids feel and struggle with in life. I also want them curious about how real is God and His word. Maddy is clearly a leader in this series of books, but in this book at first she feels like a failure. As she sees her unfaithfulness in obeying God, she discovers God is still faithful to her. She has learned something new about God that will impact her the rest of her life-a new side of His love when she discovers God even loves her on her very bad days. This will allow Maddy to always run to God no matter how she feels, knowing He will always be there. This book will speak to our children's hearts and minds the same way God speaks to us, as we are all learning to come to him as little children.
